----Mayor's Comments--------

---- Announced glad to be here, had a little procedure last week everything went great. Thanked the Council for filling in at the Leadership Conference, first time missing an event that means a lot. Lamar Higgins was a dear friend that came up with the conference.

---- Announced both teams at Charles Henderson won their area championship. It has been a banner year for both men's and women's basketball on both sides of George Wallace, the High School and University. Both have home games this week. Very excited for how well they have done.

---- Announced the City will be closed Monday, February 16th. Monday's trash and recycling will be picked up Wednesday.

-----Council Members Comments-----

----Councilwoman McSwain-Holland – Glad the Mayor received good news. Enjoyed the John Lewis Leadership Conference, had awesome participation by young people. Thanked the Mayor and Council for supporting it.

----Councilman Davis – Announced March is clean-up month for District 3. Glad the Mayor is back and hopes for continued improvement.

----Councilwoman Baker – Congratulated Charles Henderson Area basketball champions. Congratulated Pike Lib Cheerleaders for winning another National Championship. Congratulated the Mayor on daughter Kate's achievement of valedictorian. Especially glad Mayor is here in good health and spirits.

----Councilwoman Moultry – Blessing for all of us to be here, especially Mayor. God is good.

----Councilman Meeks – Announced it is still clean-up month for District 2. Glad Mayor is doing well.

There being no further business Councilwoman McSwain-Holland motioned to adjourn, and the meeting was on motion duly adjourned at 5:18 P.M.
